Our story unfolds...

A FOREVER LOVE

Our love story began when we became friends in college. Our friendship soon blossomed into love. It didn't take long for us to realize that we were destined to spend our lives side by side. Our shared passions created countless cherished memories – like beautiful music concerts and scuba diving adventures. We found joy in cozy movie nights and talking about life on nature hikes.

We were both so excited to say "I do," and we feel that being married to each other has been the best decision of our lives. We're not just partners but also each other's greatest supporters. We share so many similarities, and our differences complement one another, forming a harmonious union. Kaleb's zest for life complements Erica's nurturing nature, and vice versa.

We've enjoyed every minute of being a couple, and now we cannot wait to grow our family and become parents. We can already envision the incredible memories we will make as a family, like game nights, dancing to music, long walks in the neighborhood, enjoying a great meal together, and cuddling up on the couch. Our hearts are open and ready to love a little one unconditionally!

A NOTE FROM ERICA

My heart overflows with love when I think of Kaleb. The moment he wrote me a heartfelt love letter, each page inspired by an Ed Sheeran song, I knew he was the one. His thoughtful gestures and creative soul touched me deeply.

What I adore most about Kaleb is his selflessness and compassion. He puts everyone ahead of himself; his kindness knows no bounds. Kaleb's love for activities, whether it's disc golf, golf, or board games, brings endless fun to our lives. Kaleb is a product manager at a machine engineering company that has been in the family for generations. He is a fantastic leader, and his colleagues adore him.

Imagining Kaleb as a father fills me with joy. His unwavering support, emotional connection, and caring nature will make him an extraordinary dad. HOME FEELS LIKE Magic

Our home is filled with so much love. We enjoy spending time in our sun-filled living room, where we share heartfelt chats and cuddle up with great books. The memories we've made in our home are near and dear to us, like our fun-filled game nights and movie nights—where we always have popcorn! Welcoming a child into our home fills us with excitement, envisioning a little one joining our family traditions and celebrating all the holidays in style. We look forward to a kiddo exploring our neighborhood, which is a treasure trove of child-friendly spots. We have three parks within walking distance and an awesome water park nearby for sunny day adventures. The diversity of our neighbors enriches our lives, creating a vibrant community that embraces all, and the neighborhood children eagerly await a new playmate. We can't wait for a child to call our house home.

LIFE IS AN Adventure

We love finding fun in all that we do, and we know life will be even brighter and more beautiful with a child. We can't wait to show a little one our downtown area with its riverwalk and amazing restaurants. We know we will have a blast as a family of three, sharing hikes, playing games, traveling to new places, indulging in after-dinner ice cream, and visiting friends and family. Reading to a child every night is something we're eagerly anticipating; we already have a collection of great books to share. Trips to Austria and northern Michigan are on our to-do list with a child, thanks to Kaleb's background. Making schnitzel, grilling, and popping popcorn for movie nights are some of the cooking adventures we will surely have. We will be thrilled to discover what a child thinks is fun and find ways to bring a smile to their face every single day!

Family & Friends FOR LIFE

ERICA'S FAMILY

Erica's family can't wait to shower love and support upon a child. Their excitement is obvious, as they are looking forward to introducing a little one to a variety of activities such as cooking delicious family meals, and taking family vacations. They are also eagerly anticipating sweet days spent together, simply enjoying quality time. Undoubtedly, they will be a nurturing and joyful support system for a child.

KALEB'S FAMILY

Kaleb's family is brimming with excitement at the prospect of us becoming parents. They look forward to being a remarkable support system for the little one, filling the child's life with fun, adventurous escapades, and an abundance of love. From kayaking trips to vibrant concerts and cherished family activities, their involvement promises to create cherished memories!

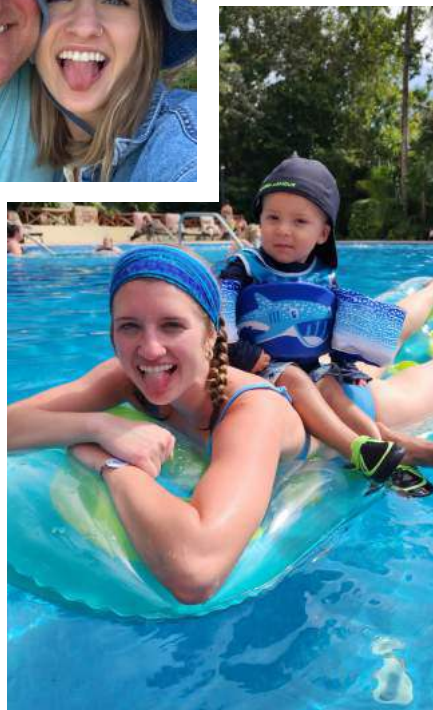

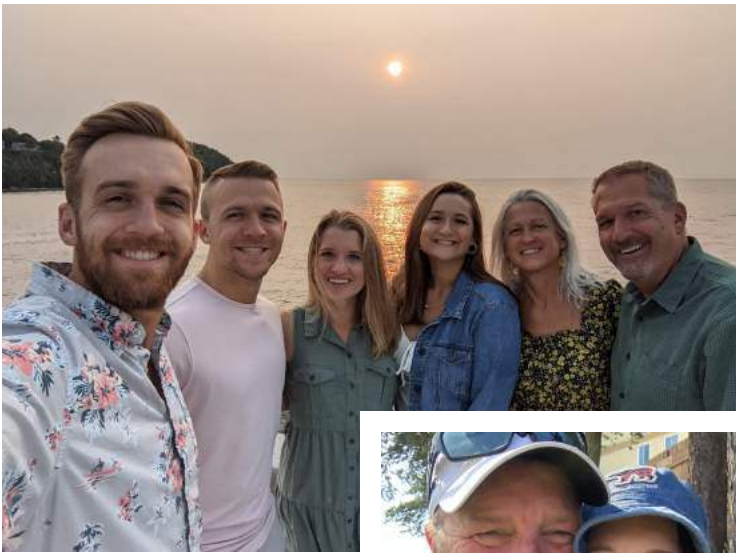

SMALL GROUP FRIENDS

Our small group, comprised of close friends from church, will serve as a continuous source of support as we step into parenthood. They've all expressed that they can't wait to become honorary aunts and uncles to a little one. They will introduce a child to vibrant church events, where other kids are eagerly anticipating a new playmate!

OLIVER

Our shih-tzu-poodle, Oliver, is going to be a child's best friend. We've been socializing him with some of our family friends' babies, and he adores them! He is a huge cuddler, so he will definitely enjoy a new snuggle buddy and we can't wait for the day that a child is chasing Oliver around in the backyard.

OUR Values

When raising a child, we hope to have the opportunity to instill in them strong values. Love, patience, kindness, and strength will be the cornerstones of what we teach a child, enabling them to develop a positive and caring attitude. We will teach a child to treat others with selflessness, generosity, and respect, and that there is no challenge that they can't face. We'll impress upon them the importance of empathy, so they can consistently show love and support to others. And most importantly, we will provide the child with unconditional love, no matter what challenges they may face. Through life's ups and downs, they will always know they are loved beyond compare, by both us and by God.

OUR Promise

We promise your child will be cherished beyond measure, embraced with unconditional love, and encouraged every step of their journey. We are committed to standing by your child's side, championing their dreams, and guiding them through life's twists and turns. Our love for your child will be unwavering, and we will forever hold gratitude in our hearts for you! Your presence will always be felt in our thoughts, and your child will forever feel the depth of your love.

It is an immense honor to be considered as parents by you, and we truly believe that your choice, whatever it may be, will be a beautiful one for both you and your child.

WITH LOVE & SUPPORT,
Kaleb + Erica
